RALPH BRISLIN 2014-03-22 The Effective Security Officer's Training Manual, Third Edition teaches today's security officers the most important aspects of performing the job of a security officer professionally and effectively. Training is the most important element in becoming a professional security officer, but it is also often overlooked or underutilized. This straightforward, easy-to-follow, and well-organized text covers the essentials that security officers need as they face issues of growing technology and an emphasis on proactiveness and vigilance. The Effective Security Officer's Training Manual, Third Edition also covers many topics of current concern such as sexual harassment, crowd control, cultural diversity, persons with special needs, new technologies, and much more. With discussion questions at the end of every chapter and a full ancillary package accompanying the text, this manual is a comprehensive tool for developing a career as a successful and trusted professional security officer. Meets ASIS International's guidelines for Private Security Officer Selection and Training Addresses the latest technological advancements that impact how today's security officers do their jobs Discusses the increased role security officers have in observing and reporting suspicious activities and events Includes end-of-chapter discussion questions to enhance understanding

KENNETH R. STEPHENS CET 2014-05-08 This book is an introductory outline of NFPA 72, 2010 edition based upon the National Fire Protection Association training seminar in Fire Alarm Inspection and Testing given in December 2009. This book concentrates on inspections as opposed to testing and gives a foundation in the NFPA 72, 2010 edition of the National Fire Alarm Code book for inspections as a separate job function. The purpose of this book is to clarify to other inspectors, managers, customers, and authorities having jurisdiction; when to inspect and when to test; based upon the National Fire Protection Association training seminar in December 2009.
